Be a Wine Goddess!

The 11 crucial vino accessories you need to fete friends (and influence people).

* Women buy 77% of the wine in America.

1. Chicest Coaster
Christofle "Oenology" Bottle Coaster, $165
This silver-plated coaster doubles as a wine adviser—its rotating dial lets you find ratings (from the renowned Hatchette Guide) for French wines by region and vintage; Christofle, NY, 212-308-9390, or vivre.com

2. Reliable Preserver
Pek "preservo" Wine Steward in silver, $99
Keeps open bottles from going bad for up to a week by filling the bottle's air space with safe argon gas. Voila! No oxidation! The Supremo model, $199, chills wine, too. Also in lack; Pek Preservation Systems, 800-560-8860, or peksystems.com.

3. Foolproof Corkscrew
Screwpull "Activ-Ball" Table Corkscrew and Foilcutter, $30
Nothing screams wine novice like a broken cork. With its strong lever, double helix-shaped pull and soft grip, this corkscrew extracts all corks (natural or synthetic) with ease; Williams-Sonoma, 877-812-6235, or amazon.com.

4. Perfect Pour
Rodenhus & Schelde "Patent" Wine Stopper and Pourer, $20.95
Attaches for a dripless pour. Our favorite part? The ingenious emergency stopper—if someone knocks the bottle over, a steel ball rolls forward to keep the wine from spilling; California Vines, 866-469-9463, or calvines.com.

5. Flawless Funnel
William Yeoward Glass Wine Funnel in amethyst, $44/small
Decanting is an elegant ritual... as long as you don't spill. This funnel ensures a drip-free, and slightly decadent, decant. Also in clear; Manor Home & Gifts, 866-406-2667, or lbgreen.com

SETS: RAILROAD STUDIO; GROOMER: BRETT JACKSON FOR SAATCHI/LAIRD; THE NEW YORK TIMES
